

Human Rights Forums

Celebrating 25 years of safeguards supporting the Human Rights of individuals...

Save the Dates!!!!

While financial circumstances don't allow for a traditional Human Rights Conference this Spring, there will be five Human Rights Forums across the state!

Please stay alert for more information (see Department's web page soon for more details on the events), but the forums, which are free of charge will include:

- recognitions and celebration,
- a panel on the status of the human rights system from several perspectives, especially the individual's,
- morning refreshments,;
- a Town Meeting on human rights issues with Commissioner Howe at each site!
- Forums are scheduled from 9 AM to Noon on the following dates and sites
